

2014 November Election Forum

Sunday, Sept. 21, 3:30-5:30pm

Fellowship Hall, 1924 Cedar St.

Presented by Berkeley Citizens Action,
Berkeley Tenants Union, and the Social Justice Committee of the Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists.

Meet your candidates in the November 2014 Election.
Supporters and opponents of local measures will discuss their positions.
Hear their ideas! Ask Questions! Demand Answers! All are welcome to attend.

Note: After the speeches and discussion, registered, current BCA and BTU members will remain to vote on their respective endorsements for progressive candidates and measures.

If you want to vote for the BCA Endorsement, you must be a current, paid-up BCA member.
Join now. (Former members may pay their membership fee at the door).

We need your support to continue BCA's longstanding tradition of amplifying Berkeley's progressive voice.

BCA Members enjoy these benefits:
Member newsletters, Facebook posts and Web page
Forums on elections & issues important to residents
Opportunity to help select the candidates and measures that best reflect Berkeley's progressive values.

The BCA endorsement is the "Good Politics Seal of Approval" for Berkeley. Whether voting by mail or at the polls on election day, voters all over Berkeley refer to BCA endorsements to guide their choices when voting.

Yes! I'll help BCA maintain a committed support network for progressive politics.
